

AHOY!

BY GINGERBREAD

Turtles and whales, and other playful sea creatures mark the many momentous milestones in a baby's first year. Each passing month is there, along with those special "firsts" – First Smile, First Tooth, First Steps. Ahoy is awash in primary colors of Blue and Red, with a little bit of Green mixed in. Use the panel to create pillows, bibs and framed art – add some of the coordinating prints to create a calendar quilt!

A ship, a ship a sailing, a sailing on the sea & it was deeply laden, with pretty things for me – Fairy Ship

CUT AND SEW BABY BIBS

Supplies needed: 1/4" fabric for bib covers, 1/2" gauze fabric. All measurements are in inches. Cut out the pieces as indicated. Place right sides together and stitch all around the following: a) waist opening to neck. Sew opening to back and stitch. b) Straight side to side and press making sure all corners are flat. Sew to machine which opening to back. c) Sew additional stitching around the bib 1/2" in from the edge. d) Place the back piece of the bib to the front of the bottom neck opening and sew to cover all the way to the side. e) Place the top piece of the bib to the top edge of the bib and sew to cover.

There are several ways to make bibs. Choose a matching backing and find a suitable fabric for the bib. The bibs have been designed with additional fabric of your choice for the bib backing.
